

Professor Anthony Burke

Head of School, Architecture, School of Architecture

Course Director, School of Architecture

Core Member, Asia-Pacific Centre for Complex Real Property Rights

Core Member, Centre for Contemporary Design Practice

Biography

Professor Anthony Burke is the Head of the School of Architecture at UTS. A leading figure in Australian architecture, he is a graduate of the Masters of Science in Advanced Architectural Design from Columbia University (MS AAD, 2000) and holds a Bachelor of Architecture from UNSW (B.Arch, Hons 1, 1996). Anthony is an international curator, writer and designer and a director of the architectural practice Offshore Studio.

Anthony is a member of the Australian Institute of Architects, is on the selection committee for the Architecture Foundation's Droga Residency program and is the chair of the Board of the Australian Design Centre. In 2012 Anthony was the curator for the Australian Pavilion at the 2012 Venice Architecture Biennale with Gerard Reinmuth. In 2013 he was invited by the Danish Ministry of Culture to curate the Architecture symposium to mark the 40th Anniversary of the Opera House, and the reciprocal event "Public City" in Copenhagen in 2014. He developed and chairs the annual speculative design competition Open Agenda for ANZ recent graduates of architecture, which is now in its 6th year.

Anthony was an Assistant Professor in Architecture at the University of California, Berkeley for five years before returning to Australia where he directed the Master of Advanced Architecture degree at UTS before being appointed Head of School in 2010.

Co Editor of an edition of AD on Post-Traumatic Urbanism, and the book Network Practices, Anthony combines scholarly research and commentary on practice futures and theory in architecture, with design research through creative works, exhibitions, and events.